Volume XXXVII

Mr. Joseph Turner

DEDICATION

For many years Mr. Joseph Turner has held a place of esteem and affection in the hearts of Woodlawn students. He is recognized as a man of character, unselfish, conscientious, and devoted. Because of his wisdom and good will, students turn to him for advice and assistance. Mr. Turner, you have won the heart of Woodlawn, and so we dedicate this WOODLOG to you.

1963

Mr. TURNER . . .

At WORK?

FOREWORD

The editors, in presenting the 1963 Woodlog, hope that in later years happy memories of our school will flow from it. In the future it will preserve as a record the wonderful times we have had, the closeness and affection of our friends, and numerous exciting moments we have spent at Woodlawn. To the class of 1963 have come many experiences recorded here that we hope will serve as a guide through the happy years ahead.

Our Principal, Mr. Ralph Martin

Mr. Martin At His Desk

"Pride, honor, glory, love" . . . these words from the Woodlawn Hymn could easily have been written to describe our principal, Mr. Ralph Martin. Since he came to Woodlawn in 1943, he has become indispensable as a leader and as a counselor. He is a friend to both student body and faculty. With his words of encouragement and understanding, many of us are inspired to aim for greater goals; and by his example of high principles and ideals, we strive to grow in character.

Not only is Mr. Martin principal of our school, but he also works with Mrs. Marsh, president of P.T.A., and the rest of the members, always striving to make Woodlawn a better school.

Let's see. The formula for nitro-glycerine is . .

PTA Projects Help Our School

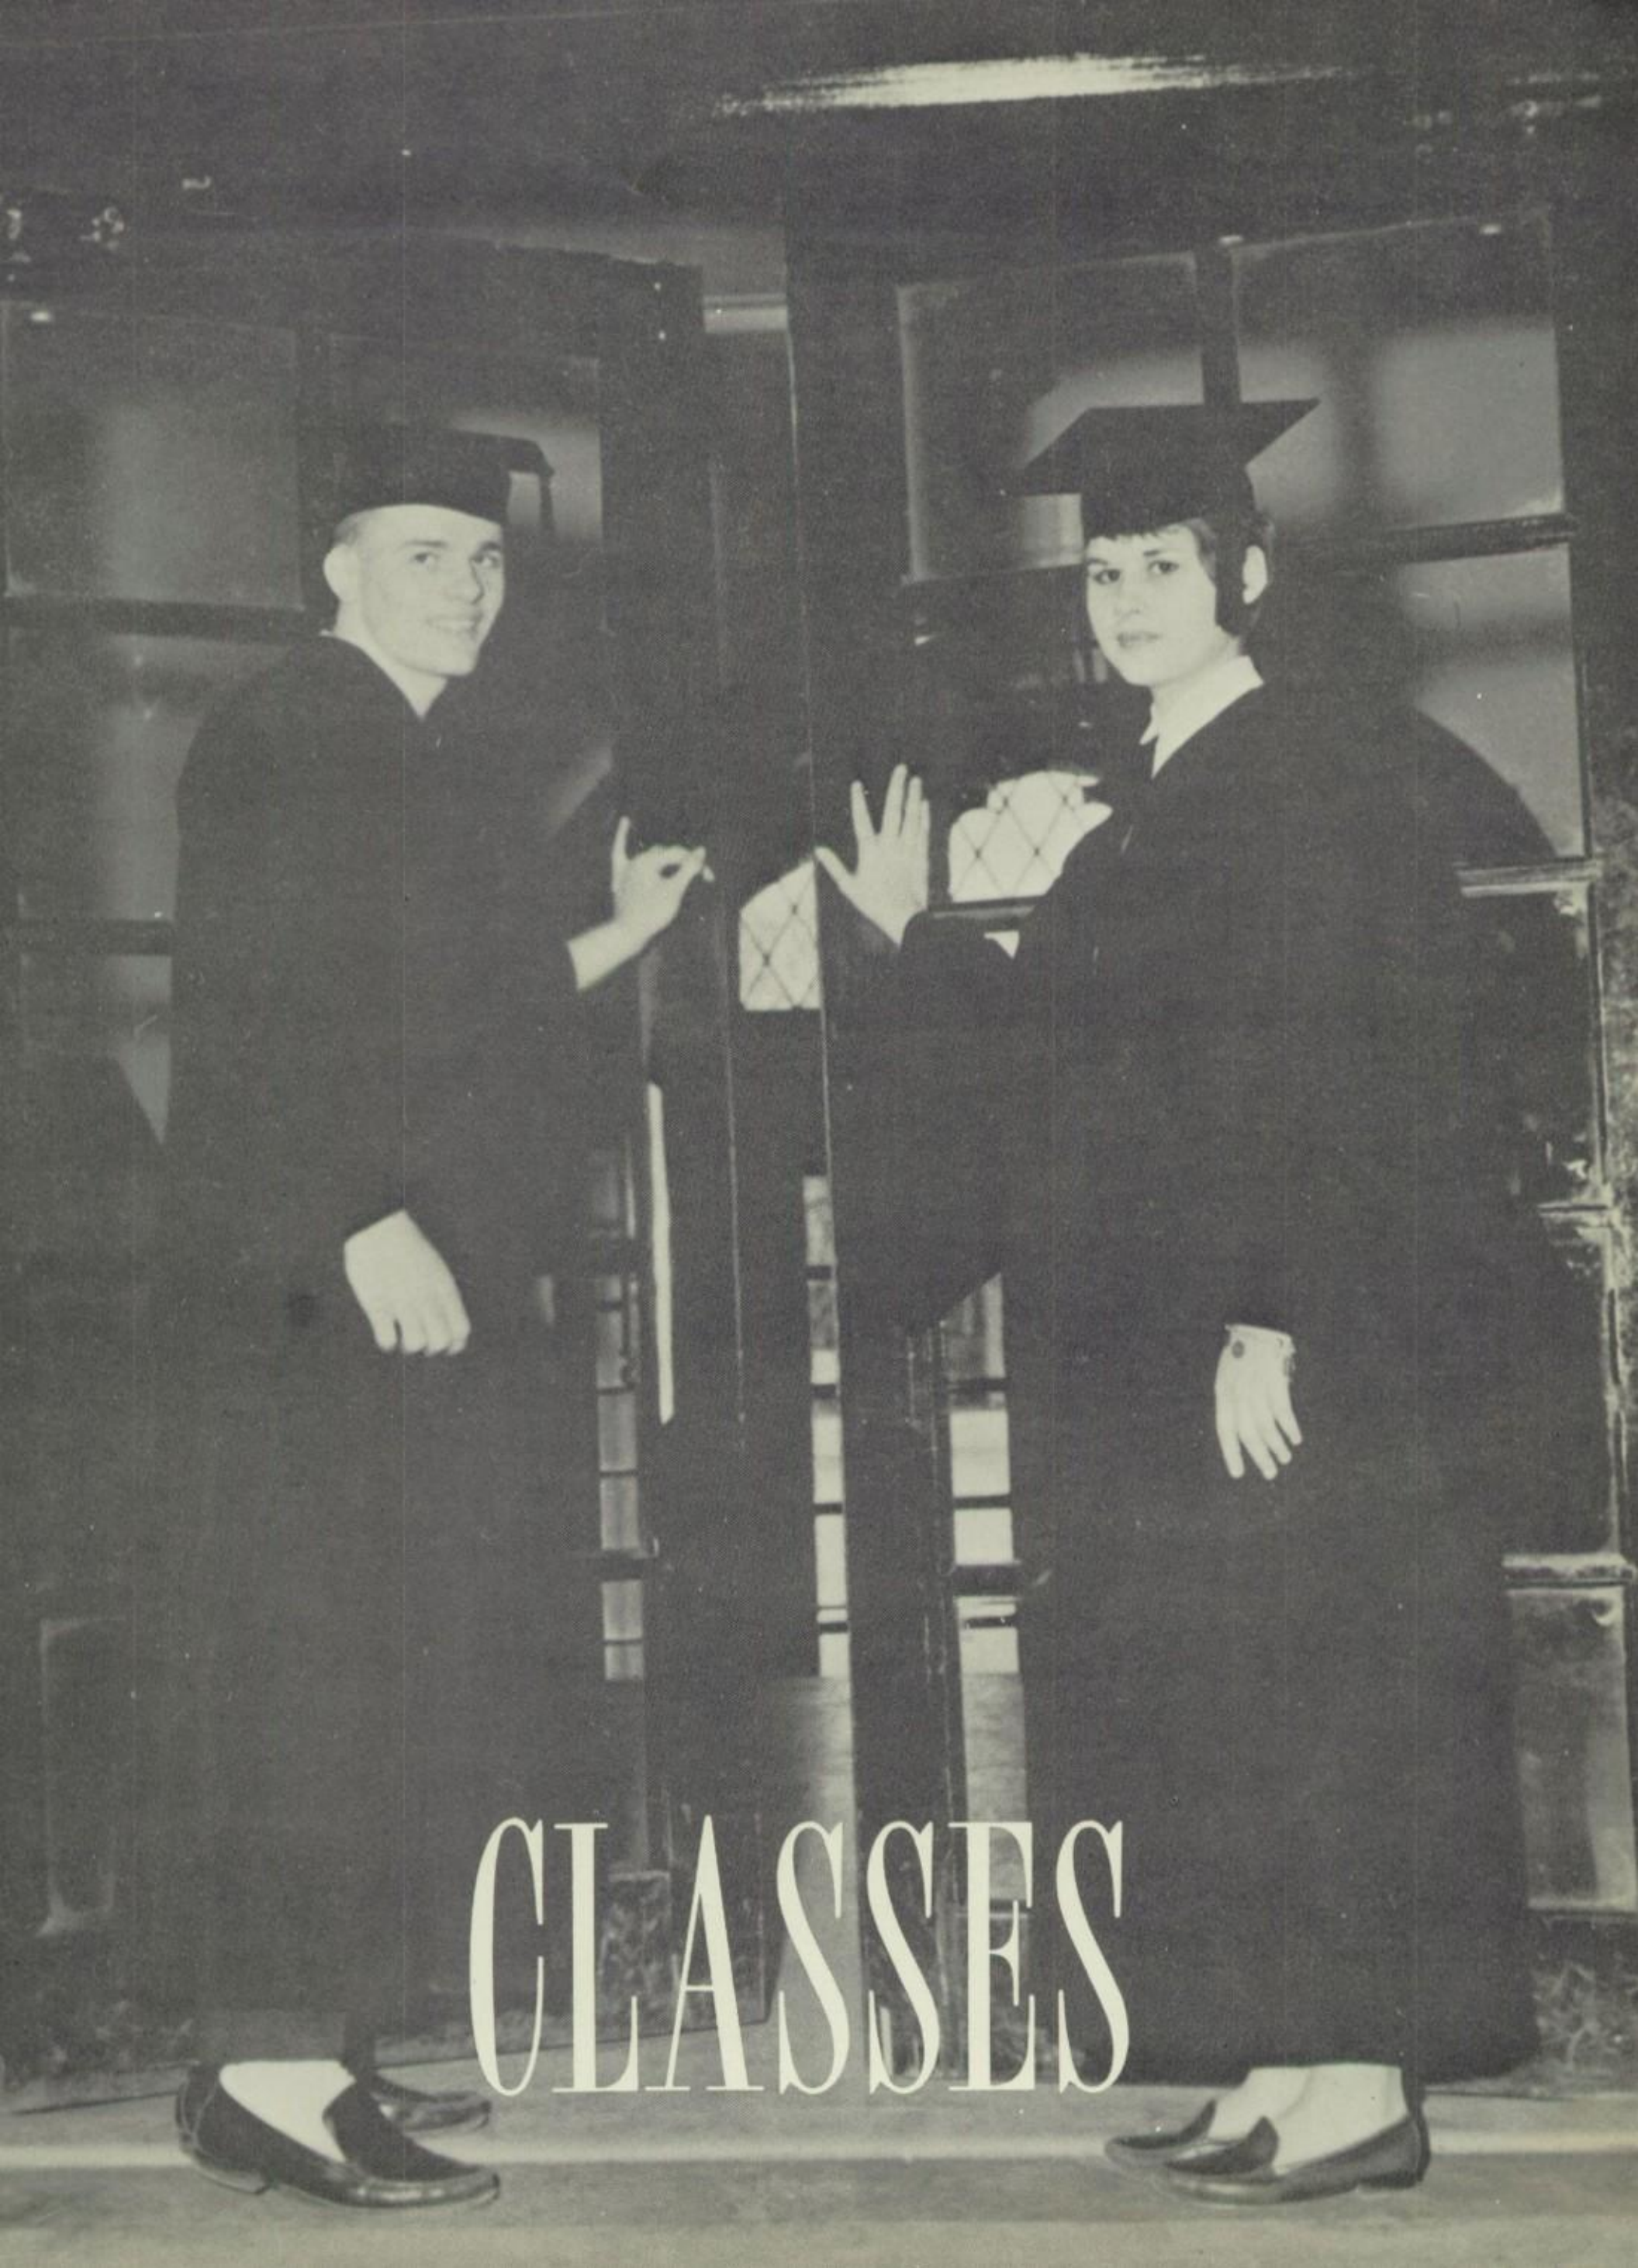
Officers pictured above are: STANDING: Mr. Martin, treasurer; Mr. Bishop, first vice President. SEATED: Mrs. Well, third vice president; Mrs. Landers, secretary; Mrs. Marsh, president; Mrs. Long second vice president.

"The Youth of Today Will Shape the World of Tomorrow" has been the national theme for the year. The Woodlawn High School PTA has followed the spirit of this theme, always keeping the youth foremost in its planning from the raising of its budget through the Parent Pledge System to the sponsoring of the Bon Fire Rally preceding Woodlawn's Homecoming Game.

Woodlawn High School has the oldest high school PTA in the state of Alabama. It was organized in 1922 with Mrs. Scudder Ryall as its first president. Today its present president, Mrs. Lloyd Marsh can boast of a long list of accomplishments among them 100% faculty membership and the largest membership in the history of the school, an appropriation of $800 to start a fund for new band uniforms, and the service of members of the PTA on the Re-Evaluation Committee for the school.

Programs include both outside and student participation. One informative meeting featured the Reverend Frank Barker speaking on "Communism", in another meeting the Home Economics Department presented a student fashion show.

Mrs. Franklin, assistant treasurer, keeps a good check on the P.T.A. funds.



CLASSES

LOU ELLEN McLAIN

Lou Ellen was chosen beauty of the January Class of 1963. Alice is the May, 1963, beauty.

BEAUTIES

Our two Senior Beauties, Lou Ellen McLain and Alice Ballard, were chosen for their charm, looks, and poise. In the contest each senior session room was represented by two girls. The finalists were carefully selected by judges Mrs. Johnny Howell, Mr. Joe Davis, and Mr. Tommy Charles.

Each community must have a governing body. That is the purpose of the Woodlawn High School student council. This government aims to develop the students in leadership, respect for the rights of others, sound judgment, to insure high stands of scholarship, to maintain ideals, truth, honor, duty, and self-control.

The offices are held by the students themselves. They run for the office and the student body elects the student best qualified for the office. This provides for any qualified student to run for an office.

LEADERSHIP

Hard work and school service are well represented in the Woodlawn chapters of the National Honor Society and the Junior National Honor Society sponsored by Miss Virgil Lamb. Students' names in the sixth through the eighth semesters are submitted for the National Honor Society and names from the third through the fifth semesters are submitted for the Junior National. The students are then voted on by the faculty, and a chosen committee makes the final selection based on scholarship, leadership character, and service.

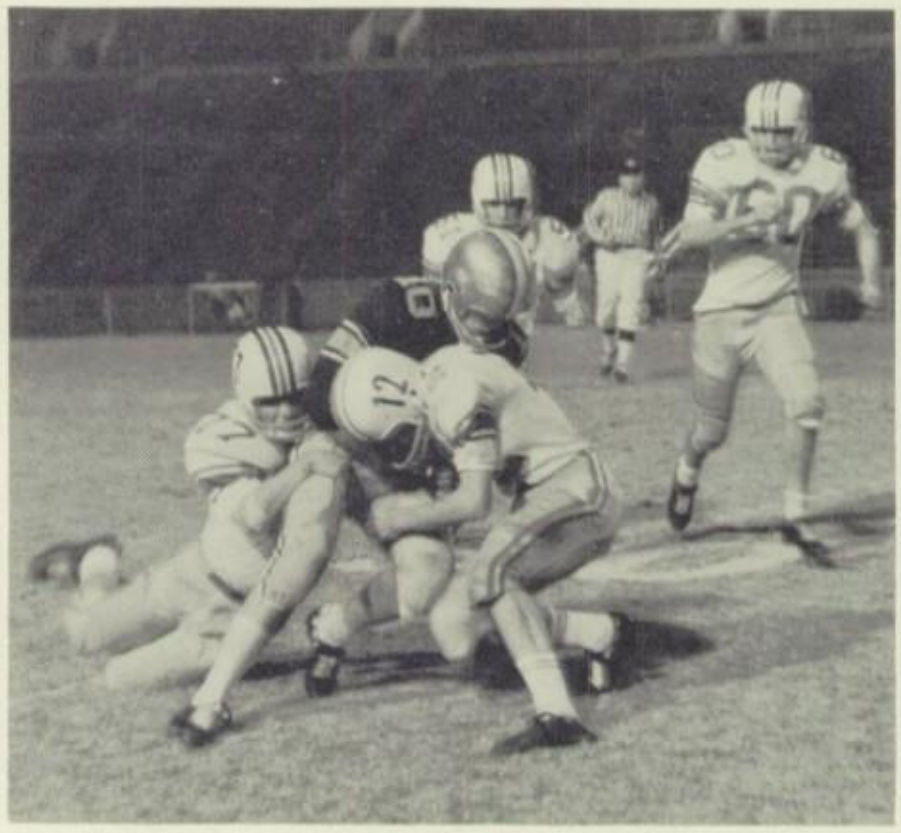
SPORTSMANSHIP PAYS

Larry Tucker and Bill Borden are in the process of "swatting" an Ensley Yellow Jacket.

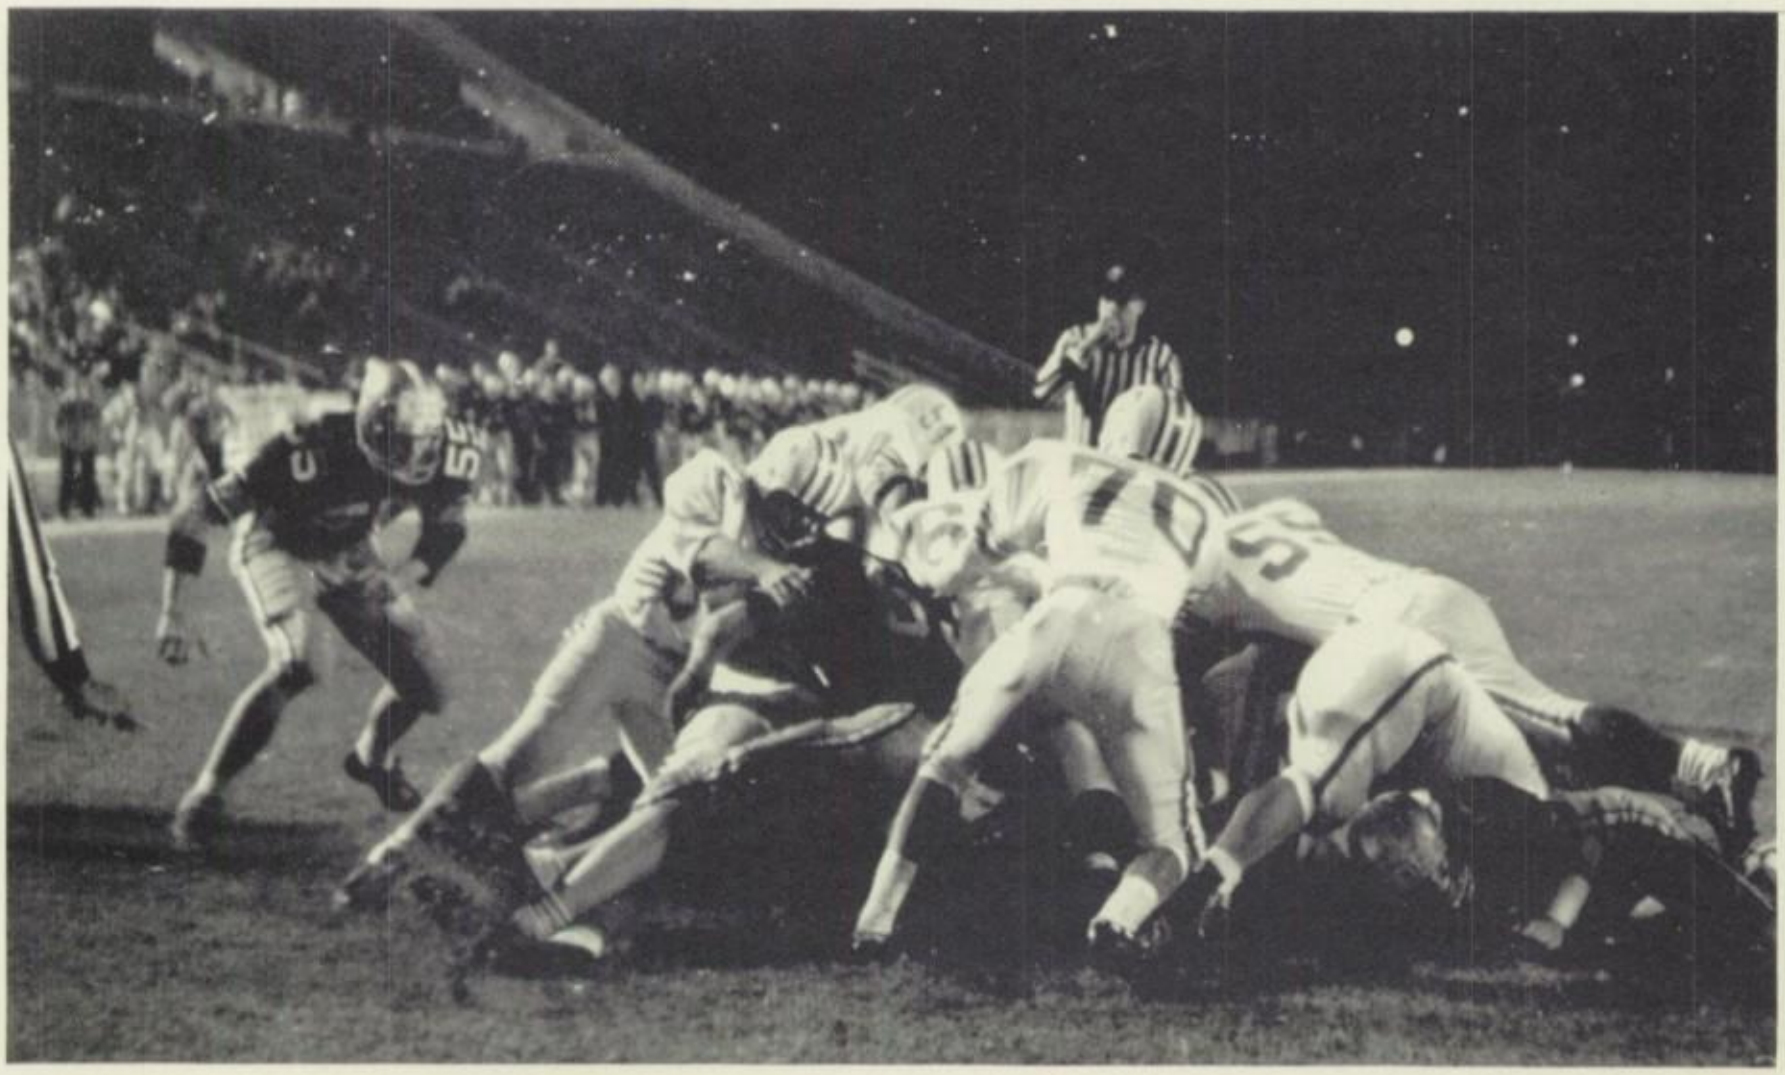
With a half-time lead of 7-0, Ensley counted twice the last two periods and never allowed the Colonels to get any closer than their 42-yard line. Woodlawn got its touchdown when Quarterback Tommy Garrison picked up a Stan Moss fumble at the Ensley 23 and romped in for the points untouched. Fullback Tommy Loveless had the Colonels only sizeable gains - a six and eight yarder - but losses attempting to pass stalled any Colonel chance of stirring a threat.

Woodlawn's Student Body President, Winston Long, and Ensley's Student Body Vice-President take part in the half-time festivities of the Woodlawn vs. Ensley game in which the Sportsmanship Cup was awarded to Ensley. It was a double victory for Ensley, they won 20-6. In spite of losing the Sportsmanship Cup to Ensley and the Colonels losses, our spirit ran higher than any other school can boast about. It is a sure thing that next year Woodlawn will be the home of the Sportsmanship Cup.

Tommy Garrison gets a jolt from a couple of Phillip's Raiders.



The Colonels, led by hard running Andy Muglach, and the passing and running of Tommy Garrison, held the upper from the start, taking the opening kickoff back 43 yards after Larry Tucker had brought it back to the 47. Muglach, Loveless, and Tommy and Jerry Garrison ate up the yardage, with Tommy Garrison setting up the score by rambling 24 yards to the one. It took four tries before he took it in. The Colonels took the second half kickoff and marched 71 yards in seven plays with Tommy Garrison again coming up with a big play, going 22 to the Jet's 20. Loveless made it to the 11 in one rush, and Tommy Garrison took it on an end sweep from there. Having recovered a Bank's fumble, Loveless and Muglach moved it to the one and Jerry Garrison picked up the tally. Gray converted. Mike Vines was hit in the end zone from the 27 to pick up the final tally.



The Jets try to crash in on another Colonel touchdown.

THIS IS ATHLETIC?

. . . . . and we're going to cage those Lions.

Say cheeeeeese.

All right, girls, you've been playing with fire again.

Man, what a weiner roast!

Awfully glad to meet you.

I don't think it'll rain, do you?

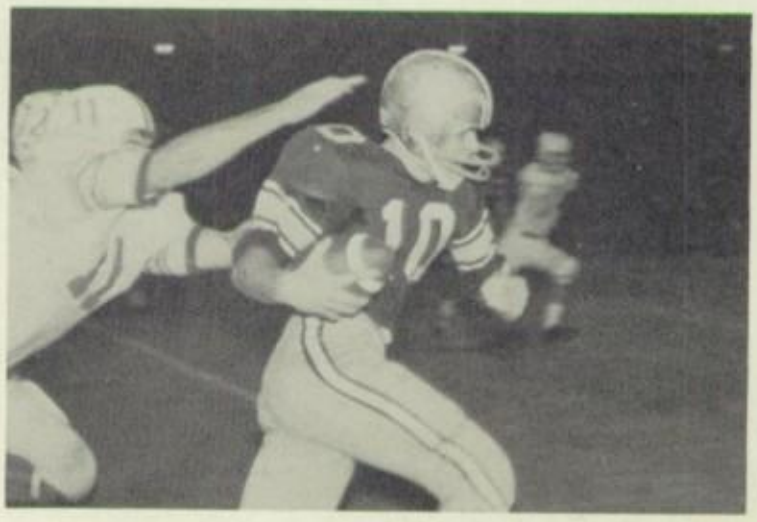
Now Paula, quit making faces and you too Sue, Sarah, and Dorothy.
Everyone else is fine but Kay, why don't you look at the birdie?

IN MEMORY OF BANKS JETS

All right, boys, this is what we're gonna do.

What's this-a new cheerleader?

Larry Contri-hard at work?



Watch out Tommy!

All right boys, I don't care if you don't want to get your picture taken.

Janice,
Right now I'm run out of anything to write. I can't tell you that you're sweet 'cause you not and I can't tell you that you're pretty course you not that either. All kidding aside you're everything I said.
May God bless you and keep you in his care.

Brenda

Dear Janice,

You are a very nice & sweet girl.
Hell enough lies. Ha Ha
Any way I hope we will always be friends.

Janet Connell

Dear Jenni,

It has been a real pleasure to know you and would be a rare pleasure for anyone. I hope you have a future that a nice and sweet girl like you deserve. I also hope you remember the great times we had together. In the future I hope you get the kind of husband you want, one with black hair, brown eyes, and dark skin. You know you are a very pretty girl and will always have a place in my heart. It has been a wonderful friendship and hope it always will be. May God Bless You Forever,

Love ya. Ronnie
